

23rd Annual Saints' Roost Museum Col. Charles Goodnight Chuck Wagon Cook Off

Clarendon, Texas
September 23, 2017

Dear Chuck Wagon Owner:

The Board of Directors of Saints' Roost Museum has set the date for the 23rd Annual Col. Charles Goodnight Chuck Wagon Cook Off for Saturday, September 23, 2017. We invite you to participate by returning the registration form below. The following information might be helpful to you in making the decision to compete:

Wagon deposit will be $100.00 per wagon (Refunded on arrival).

$100 will be paid to each wagon upon arrival to help defray travel expenses.

Registration deadline is August 1st to confirm number of wagons and allow pre-sale of tickets to the public. Space for 16 wagons.

Set-up on Friday, September 22, 2017 on the museum grounds, HWY 70 South
Cook's meeting Friday 3:00 pm

Wagon judging Friday 3:30 pm

Campsites and wagons judged based on authenticity using trail criteria.

Cook's Dinner Friday 6:30 pm

Junior Cook Off competition on Friday afternoon/evening to promote the art of chuck wagon cooking. We hope that each wagon will participate in this fun event by mentoring a young cook. Junior participants will prepare potatoes (using any recipe) to be judged and then served at the Cook's Dinner Friday evening. Bring your favorite potato recipe to share with a junior cook.

On Saturday each wagon will prepare a menu of chicken fried steak, beans, biscuits, mashed potatoes, and peach cobbler. (Meat will be distributed to the wagon already cut and tenderized and peaches will be canned). Each wagon will provide 40 meals for the public.

The meal will be served at 1:00 pm, Saturday. Awards at 3:00 pm.

Conversation wood will be provided for your fires.

Parking area will be provided for trailers away from the cookoff area.

$3250 in prize money will be given away.

All proceeds benefit the museum which is housed in the 106 year old Adair Hospital. Proceeds allow us to maintain the building and pay monthly expenses.

Qualified judges will determine winners.

Please find additional details included with this mailing regarding the Cook Off.
